

Teen Takeover

We want you!

The York Daily Record seeks more talented young people for its monthly section and blog with stories for teen readers, reported by teen writers.

Each teen is asked to write once or twice a month on lifestyles, television, school, politics, events — anything relating to adolescents — and contribute to the Teen Takeover Web site, www.yorkteentakeover.com

The writers meet for an hour and a half each month with York Daily Record staff.

The position is unpaid, but teens will be edited professionally, create a portfolio of clips and learn more about journalism from inside the profession.

If you are between 13 and 17, please send us:

- Your name, grade and school
- Telephone number
- E-mail address
- A sample of your writing
- Two letters of reference
- A list of three stories you would like to read in Teen Takeover.

Writing samples can be an essay or a term paper from school. References can be from a teacher, guidance counselor, coach or neighbor (just not your parents).

Send your submissions to York Daily Record, Teen Takeover, 1891 Loucks Rd., York, PA 17408 or e-mail teens@ydr.com.

Deadline is May 31
